

ERIK BROMAN

Broker

Erik has been a Colorado resident since 1990 and completed his B.A. from Colorado State University with a concentration in Real Estate and Finance. He began his real estate career with Wheeler Commercial in 2006 and stayed on board after Wheeler was acquired by Marcus & Millichap.

With over two years of investment real estate experience at Marcus & Millichap, specializing in the brokerage of multi-family residential properties in Northern Colorado, Erik joined the Realtec team in January 2009.

Erik has been the top performing apartment broker in Northern Colorado for the past four years. Erik is committed to providing the services needed to fulfill all of his clients' requirements and is dedicated to providing apartment owners the highest quality advisory and brokerage services possible.

In addition to multifamily investments, Erik focuses on retail, office and industrial properties for clients. He provides a high level of service and assists owners in positioning their properties for either sale or long-term ownership.

“We had a lot at stake even before we signed on with Erik Broman to sell our multifamily property in Fort Collins. He delivered in fine fashion. From the get-go Erik was honest, professional, respectful, and optimistic without raising our expectations too high. His exceptional marketing expertise broadened our exposure to different types of investors, one of whom ultimately bought the property in a timely, well-orchestrated manner. We couldn't be more pleased.”
